Everyone else: Our "denim & red" uniform, which is clean, neat, blue jeans (no holes, no ragged bottom, no big flares, preferably at the waist), red PCC polo shirt (DO NOT wear a turtleneck underneath--it's usually very hot in the bank), and clean white gym shoes (or as close to white as you can get...it's most important that they're clean). No Santa hats.

Bring? Smiles! Older singers will want to bring water bottles. I'll bring caroling books.

FAQ's Yes, parents can watch and videotape as long as you don't interfere with bank customers and business. There's a small public lounge area where the bank staff puts out cookies, punch, and coffee for their customers.

PLEASE DO NOT LET YOUR CHILDREN GOBBLE ALL THE COOKIES! They're for bank customers.

OVER→

Please be cautious about bringing small children; the bank will be conducting regular business throughout the morning.

For those of you new to PCC, this might seem like an unusual venue for our singers. True! PCC has been doing this event for years and years. We consider this an important event for the Palatine community and therefore expect all singers to participate.

Chaperones:	DRM:	Jami Ledwith	Chris Lindstrom
	TC:	Beth Anderson	Bridget Corona

Want to volunteer? Email Diane at bdramsdn@comcast.net.

Finally... Please be sure your singer eats a good breakfast before coming to the bank. We don't want our singers to feel ill because they're hungry.

This is especially important because the bank is very warm.

We will NOT be wearing Santa hats. They're just too hot.
